

Ada Tse

Co-founder and Director, Volar Air Mobility

Nationality

Hong Kong

Career History

Ms. Tse is an experienced aviation professional with over almost 40 years experience in Hong Kong and the Asia-Pacific region.

She was the Deputy Director General of the Asia-Pacific Region of the Airports Council International (ACI Asia-Pacific) where she had the mandate to promote airports' excellent practices and to advance airports' interests.

Prior to joining ACI, Ms. Tse has held various positions in the aviation industry in Hong Kong, including the Civil Aviation Department of the Hong Kong Government, Hong Kong Aircraft Engineering Co. Ltd. and Airport Authority Hong Kong (AAHK).

In the 13 years with the AAHK, Ms. Tse held senior positions with responsibilities spanning from Terminal Operations, Airfield Operations, Aeronautical Revenue Management, Aerodrome Licensing as well as Operational Staff Training and Certification. She was also involved in the management and business development of Zhuhai Airport in China under the joint venture agreement between AAHK and Zhuhai Municipal Government.

Awards / Publications

Bachelor Degree in Laws with the University of London and Master of Management in Aviation with the University of Massey, New Zealand.

Ms. Tse also served as a voluntary member at the Air Traffic Control Section of the Royal Hong Kong Auxiliary Air Force and obtained the Air Efficiency Award and Private Pilot Licence in Hong Kong.

Areas of expertise

Aviation Management