

Julien Perez

Position/Department/Division/Institution/Organization

Vice President, Strategy & Policy, Oil and Gas Climate Initiative (OGCI)

Country

United Kingdom/France

Career history

Previously, Julien was head of Climate & Energy Services at Ernst & Young where he assisted private and public players in setting up and implementing low-carbon strategies. Julien also worked at Total where he coordinated climate change actions and at Aecom managing environmental liabilities for various industries.

Areas of expertise

Julien Perez is responsible for developing external policy views, coordinating commitments, managing relations with institutions and providing strategic direction to drive future investments.