

Lin Xu

Position/Department/Division/Institution/Organization

Chairman of the China-U.S. Green Fund

Country

China

Career history

Mr. Xu Lin joined the former Long-term Planning Department of the State Development Planning Commission in 1989, and later served as Director General of the Department of Fiscal and Financial Affairs and the Department of Development Planning of NDRC, Director of China Center for Urban Development, and Chairman (Associate) of the China-U.S. Green Investment Management Co., Ltd., among others.

Participated in the formulation of several China's Five-Year Plans for economic and social development, urbanization plans, regional development plans and policies, major industrial policies and the drafting work of the Report to the 19th National Congress of the CPC, presided over the preparation of the "13th Five-Year Plan," and participated in China's WTO accession talks. Participated in the formulation of major reform plans in the financial sector, as well as the development, system construction and supervision of capital markets, especially the bond market and private equity investment market, and served as a member of Issuance Appraisal Committee of China Securities Regulatory Commission for three sessions.

Once served as Chairman on Duty of Beijing Private Equity Association; Concurrently serve as Chairman of Beijing Green Finance Association, Secretary of the Party Committee & Executive Vice President of China Mergers & Acquisitions Association, Committee Member of Demonstration Area in the Yangtze River Delta on Ecologically Friendly Development, Vice President of China Association of Productivity Science and many other social positions.

Successively studied in Nankai University, American University, National University of Singapore, and Harvard Kennedy School and holds master's degrees in Economics (Nankai University) and Public Administration (National University of Singapore).

Areas of expertise

Public policy making