

Canan Derinöz Gencil

Director, Environment and Climate Change Department, Turkish Cement Manufacturer Association
(TURKCIMENTO)

Nationality

Türkiye

Career History

For more than 17 years, Ms. Gencil serves as an industrial sector representative. Providing continuous and reliable technical based communication and information exchange between stakeholders are in the center of her tasks. Main stakeholders are cement plants, government, other energy intensive sector organizations, academy, international organizations and private sector. Before this task; for about 10 years, she worked as a research engineer, field engineer and as head of an 17025 accredited environmental laboratory. She has a masters and bachelor's degree in Environmental Engineering.

Areas of expertise

Sustainability

National/international environmental and climate change policies

EU Green Deal and Carbon Border Adjustment Mechanisms

Circular economy

Waste management

Carbon management

Environmental compliance, benchmarking